step up to the plate

Jim Thome

This season, Jim Thome, the "Thominator," moved effortlessly across the diamond from third base to the first base position.

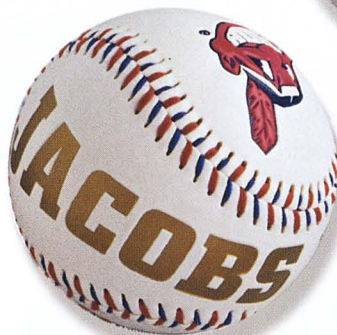

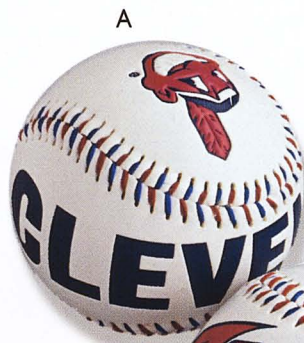

He collected his 500th hit on April 27, a three-run home run, and by mid-summer, made his first – but fans feel – not his last All-Star appearance.

all the tribe trimmings

Charles Nagy

Charles Nagy was the Tribe's most consistent starter again in 1997, leading the team in wins (15), innings (227) and strike-outs (149) for the third straight season. He tossed his sixth career shutout on May 9, the only Tribe shutout all year.
